Dear Festive Friend,

OH, DISASTER!!! THERE IS AN IMPOSTELF AMONG US!!!!

It's Christmas Eve here at the Clausplex and we are all working frantically to finish all the Christmas preparations so that Santa can deliver toys to all the children of the world...but there have been so many incidents of OUTRIGHT SABOTAGE.

We need to gather evidence, call an Emergency Meeting, and identify the Impostelf Among Us so that we can get back to our frantic panic - ahem, I mean, our sensible, orderly preparations. Please can you help?

The only problem is that we are in such a tizzy that we've forgotten how to access the Emergency Meeting button...but there are some useful notes scribbled here. Please can you figure out how to call an emergency meeting and gather the necessary evidence to detect the instigator of these Christmas sabotages and thus SAVE CHRISTMAS??? We (and the world!) would be eternally grateful!

Good luck and best wishes,

Agent 003½

(on behalf of all the elves at the Clausplex)
